Town quashes petition

Curb and gutter project will proceed

After meeting with residents in the area concerned with the installation of new curb, gutter, pavement and utility lines, Town Council has declared a petition reportedly signed by over half the ratepayers insufficient. Town Manager Myron Goyan said the petition fell short in that it contained signatures which were neither witnessed or dated, addresses were incorrect and the second page of the petition did not have a heading with the required information.

Bylaw 599/99, permitting the Town to borrow $67,000 to put toward the $371,000 project, was given final reading at a special meeting of Council on April 19. Ratepayers in the area will be required to repay $59,000 in debentures over a period of years. The balance of the cost of the project will come from reserves and grant funding. Council then voted to go ahead with the project.

Town Council also spent part of the meeting working on a proposal to locate the new Northern Lights Library System headquarters in Elk Point.

Discussions on the Pan Canadian building were tabled.

Volunteer Appreciation Week

F.C.S.S. brings in a "third doctor"

A third doctor came to Elk Point last week, courtesy of the Elk Point FCSS and the County of St. Paul FCSS department. His visit was only a couple of hours long, but he definitely left his "patients" at the Volunteer Appreciation Night in stitches.

Dr. Spot, "Resident Surgeon," said he was "here because you were able to keep your hospital," and applauded Grace Kinjerski for her outstanding efforts for that cause. "It takes people like you to get results." Linnette Newby, County FCSS Director, applauded all of Elk Point's volunteers "who kept the community strong when the hospital was in jeopardy." Elk Point's FCSS Director, Deanna Easthope, told the volunteers they were "very valuable people. You all really work together and do great things."

The good doctor, who reminded many of those in the audience of classic funnyman Red Skelton, had a wealth of funny stories in his doctor bag, many about the medical profession, others about old age and even a few about politicians. Dr. Spot has a serious side as well, and offered a pair of thought-provoking poems by authors from his home region near Plamondon.

The visiting consultant had some valuable advice for the hardworking volunteers, noting that if you're tired, it could be because you're overworked and need to take a break. In closing, he noted that it's important to do what you enjoy, and "I can't think of anything I'd rather do than make people laugh."

The door prize was won by Jenny Scott.

DR. SPOT assists Linnette Newby in making the door prize draw.

Chamber planning for summer

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce is planning for the arrival of summer and an influx of tourists. Members arriving at last week's meeting were given a stack of brochures from other communities to look over, to determine the style they would like for Elk Point's new edition. Only a handful of the current Elk Point brochures remain, not an adequate supply for the coming season. Quotes for the new brochures and for postcards will be brought before the May 5 meeting, where decisions will be made.

Several interested vendors have already signed up for the Community

Garage Sale on the June 5 weekend, and signup sheets are now available at the Elk Point Review. Elk Point United Church will have a limited number of tables for rent for the sale, as well as holding a sale of their own. Anyone interested in renting a table can call Gordon Kuhn at 724-4434, days.

The Community Garage Sale is being held the same weekend as the Elk Point Auto Club's annual show and shine and the Elk Point 4-H Beef Achievement Day, June 5. No decision has yet been made regarding a major retail promotion that day, but sidewalk sales are a distinct possibility.

The Chamber also looked ahead to Canada Day and passed a motion to host their annual pancake breakfast again this year.

The Chamber welcomed a new member, Manon Joice of Stems N Stuff, and quickly added her to a brand new committee. The Town of Elk Point is looking at ways to spruce up some of Elk Point's heritage business buildings and wants to establish a committee on enhancing and improving the downtown, and have asked for volunteers from the Chamber to take part in the committee. Gordon Kuhn, Victor Stepa and Ms Joice will join Town representatives to look at projects which would enhance the community. Town Manager Myron Goyan said the Town has asked an engineering firm for suggestions regarding redesigned sidewalks for the downtown area.

April 28 is Canada's National Day of Mourning

War, youth suicide, youth violence join job accidents as reasons to mourn

By Deanna Easthope

FCSS Director

It is quite a thought to recognize that April 28 is National Day of Mourning in Canada. I am not sure on the reasoning as to why Canada has declared April 28 at the National Day of Mourning.

But... it is something to think about. One's first thoughts, when you think of a day set aside as a day of mourning, is a day to think about those who have died before they have had a chance to complete their life's mission.

We are all aware of the war that NATO is involved in. Yes, that is very sad to see that innocent people have lost their lives. It is a time of mourning for all they have lost.

Recently, our office received some information on the suicide rates among young people. To me, this is a reason to mourn. Some of the facts are: "U. S. - Suicide rate for youngsters tripled since 1960;" "Denmark - Around 2000 young people under 25 years attempt suicide each year;" "Israel - 1981-1994 - Estimated suicide rate for Jewish boys aged 15 to 18 increased by about 183%," France - "1996 study finds that suicide attempts are more frequent among patients taking antidepressants..." and Australia - "Suicides dropped when sedative availability was restricted." Australia's suicide rate increased between 1960 and 1967 when legislation was passed to enable a person to obtain multiple prescriptions for sedatives. When the law was modified in 1967 to restrict the practice, there was a decrease in per capita sedative usage and a decline in suicide rates.

What all this suicide information leads to is the awareness that the use of prescribed antidepressants has shown to be a significant factor in the increase of suicide among the youth.

Violence in youth is also a reason to mourn. Last week's horrific school shooting in Colorado is evidence of a growing trend. Between 1965 and 1992, the arrest rate for violent crimes by US children under the age of 18 increased by 261%. In 1996, more than 31% of jail inmates arrested for violent offenses were 24 years of age or under. In the U.K., recorded violent crimes rose by an incredible 2077% from 1946 to 1994. The arrest rate for homicides by 17-year-olds increased by 121% between 1985 and 1991. In Germany in 1993, a murder was committed every three hours. Canada's rate of violent crime doubled in the '60s, increased by 30% in the '70s and rose another 46% in the '80s. And Australia's crime rate parallels this trend: the number of serious assaults, for example, has risen 391% between 1973-74 and 1991-92.

Yes, Wednesday, April 28 is Canada's National Day of Mourning. I have only referred to three examples which give us a reason to mourn: war, youth suicide and youth violence. I am sure you can think of others. Our challenge now becomes to find solutions.

EDITOR'S NOTE:

Canada's National Day of Mourning is a time set aside to remember those killed and injured in work-related accidents. The Town of Elk Point has proclaimed this day to be observed in our community.

RCMP seek help in finding culprits in oilpatch, other recent thefts

Oilpatch theft

Sometime between April 7 and April 8 on a lease site just north of Lindbergh, more than $1700 worth of equipment was stolen. Among these were come-alongs with chains and hooks, different lengths and sizes of chains, grab hooks and boomers. A pickup truck was obviously used to carry these items.

Sometime between 6:30 p.m. on March 18 and 8:00 a.m. on March 19, 1999, suspects broke into a trailer (referred to as a "doghouse" belonging to Rockwell Servicing and located just north of Fishing Lake townsite. Individuals responsible took 2 Scott airpicks (similar to diving equipment and contained in black plastic cases), a microwave, a grinder, a set of wrenches, a set of screwdrivers, a half inch torque wrench, a wash bay and a hydraulic jack as well as several pairs of coveralls sporting the Rockwell Servicing emblem on the left breast and "Rig 68" on the right side. The culprits were also responsible for having discharged a fire extinguisher within the building.

Break, enter and theft

Sometime between 9:00 p.m. on April 3 and 6:00 a.m. on April 4, 1999, suspects broke into the Hillside Service gas station located on Highway 41 in Elk Point. Stolen was a 200 to 400 lb. grey safe on wheels which contained cash, cheques and credit slips.

On April 9, 1999 at Fishing Lake, Alberta, a suspect or suspects broke into a shed near a residence and stole an air compressor. The air compressor is described as a Coleman Powermate Contractor, mobile gas operated air compressor, dual tank, black in color, value between $1000 and $1100.

Anyone with information on any of these four crimes is asked to call Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477) or the Elk Point RCMP Detachment.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $2000 for information leading to the arrest of the person(s) responsible for these or any other crime. You do not have to reveal your identity and if your tip leads to an arrest you qualify for an award.

Elk Point Ukrainian Dancers bring home the medals!!!

By Sue Bartholomew
Review Contributor

Once again it's that time of year when the hard working students of the Elk Point Metelytsia Ukrainian Dance Club head out to competitions.

Recently, April 15 to 18, the Elk Point dancers competed at the Svoboda Dance Festival in North Battleford, Saskatchewan. This is one of the larger competitions that we compete in, with clubs coming from all over Alberta and Saskatchewan, the level of dance is highly competitive. Here are some of our great results!

April 15: Duets

In the duet category, our girls, Jasmine Brown, Eva Gusnowski, Chantelle Maas and Kenna Hillebrand all brought home Bronze medals.

Travis and Kirsty Lindquist did a fine job in our mixed duet, bringing home a Bronze medal.

Our young men, Addison Bartholomew and Travis Lindquist, brought home a Silver medal along with a special High Achievement award in this category!

April 16: Mixed Large Groups

On this day, our dancers performed the "Volynska Polka and Zakarpatski Tanety," bringing home Silver medals for both dances!

April 17

This was the day for all our younger dancers to shine! Mixed Large Group, 9 - 10 year olds, wowed the audience by performing a Silver medal dance of the "Hutzul Zabava."

Not to be outdone, our Mixed Large Group, 6 years and under, showed everyone how to do a great "Kozachok" by bringing home a Gold medal!

We are very proud of all our dancers for the time and extra effort they put in. They are getting very well known throughout the Ukrainian Dance forum and along with this, the town of Elk Point benefits from this great form of publicity. We as a community must take the time to show our appreciation of our young Arts ambassadors, by allowing them to shine in their accomplishments at home also. On this note, we are sure everyone in the community will want to attend the Metelytsia Dancers Annual Spring Concert on May 2, 1999 at 2 p.m. in the F. G. Miller High School. Our special thanks to both the High School and Elementary School in allowing us to practice and perform in these facilities.

Upcoming Competition:

Ukrainian Cultural Centre, St. Paul, May 7 - 9.

Reflections on my trip to Mexico

By Peter Andrishak
Review Contributor

Having just returned from a two week vacation to Mazatlan and Guadalajara, Mexico, I thought some people might be interested in my impressions of it.

Mazatlan has a population of some 700,000 people and is located on the west coast of Mexico. Their three main industries are tourism, fishing and the brewing of beer. Because of its warm year-round climate it is a mecca for tourists for all over the world.

Many Canadians own homes in Mazatlan and either live there permanently or spend the winters there. Canadian money is easily converted at any money exchange. The rate is six pesos to one

LOOKING FOR A HANDOUT -- Many Mexican children depend on tourists' handouts for their livelihood.

CONSTRUCTION, MEXICAN STYLE -- workers building an apartment block carry cement in five gallon pails all day.

Canadian dollar.

In Canada you hear so many negative things about Mexico. I was afraid if I went there I would get mugged or robbed. Nothing could be further from the truth, I walked the streets, even late at night, and felt perfectly safe.

In Mexico you do not drink water from a tap. Bottled water is provided in hotel rooms.

Mexico is a very mountainous country. Crops such as mangoes and pineapple are grown in the valleys.

This is what they call their dry season, some parts of Mexico have not received any rain since October. It is so dry some rivers as wide as the North Saskatchewan are bone dry, and will not flow again until their rainy season starts in June.

In Mexico there is little welfare, so you see many people, mostly women with small children, on the street begging for money. Most people just pass them by without even looking at them. Some people really work hard. I saw men building an apartment building, who were carrying five gallon pails of cement on their backs all day long, for which they were paid $5 a day.

Guadalajara is a city of six million people. It was founded by the Spaniards in 1542. It has many beautiful parks and historical buildings such as their cathedral which was started 200 years ago and took 50 years to complete. It has a tall, 60 foot Gothic ceiling, beautiful stained glass windows and a superb statue of Jesus.

In Mexico there is little welfare, no universal old age pension and a minimum wage of $3 a day, yet I found the Mexicans to be a happy, friendly people who seemed satisfied with their lives.

Community Facility Enhancement Program extended to 2002

By Paul Langevin, MLA
Lac La Biche-St. Paul

The Alberta government has reaffirmed its commitment to Alberta communities by extending the successful Community Facility Enhancement Program (CFEP) for three more years. A commitment of $75 million from the Alberta Lottery Fund has been provided to continue the program to the 2001/2002 fiscal year.

CFEP is a matching-grant program that provides financial assistance to build, purchase, repair, renovate and upgrade public-use facilities in Alberta communities. It provides grants of up to $125,000 per project per fiscal year to help build or improve community facilities used for sports, recreation, culture or other family and community wellness purposes.

Municipalities, First Nations and Metis Settlement, and registered non-profit community groups are eligible to apply for funding.

Recipients of CFEP funding must contribute an equal or greater amount toward the project. This may be in the form of any combination of money, volunteer labour or donated equipment, services and materials.

As many as 2,000 projects will receive CFEP funding over the next three years. More than 7,000 grants, worth a total of $250 million, have been distributed since 1988 to support community facility enhancement.

The CFEP IV application forms are available at my constituency office in St. Paul.

F. G. Miller ROCKS!

Crusader Sound Dragons let loose

LOSER MAKES GREAT -- They call themselves "Loser Makes Good," but if the reaction of the teens at Friday afternoon's rock concert at F. G. Miller is any indication, their name is an understatement. Brandon Parenteau, Dallas Flamand, Terry Parenteau, T. J. Jabush and latest addition to the band, Darcy Stafford, had the whole gym jumping with their music, which included an original song written by the band, and a wonderful tribute to the teachers, Lynyrd Skynyrd's "Sweet Home Alabama," with Mr. Bjorkman joining in.

RAPT ATTENTION was accorded special guest performer Clint McKendrick of Edmonton who performed four numbers with teacher Colin Bjorkman before his pair of solos, "Crossroads" by Eric Clapton and Van Halen's "Eruption."

French Club busy fundraising

By Leanne Wilson
Student Journalist

Hello from F. G. Miller High School. Well, April is almost over and soon May will be here bringing in the busy part of the year. Speaking of busy, the next two months will be extremely so for the Millennium French Club. Since last September, Grade 8 and 9 French students and their parents have been fundraising for a trip to Quebec in the year 2000. So far, the club has worked booth shifts, had raffles and organized little events for the school.

For the remainder of April and May, the French Club has many events planned. On the evening of April 22, the students delivered telephone books. Then on May 1, kids and parents will be hitting the highways picking garbage for a nine mile stretch. In school, students, with the help of parents, will be selling Kinder Eggs and pizza. And last but not least, on May 29, the Millennium French Club in conjunction with Edmonton Northlands, will be hosting a talent explosion. Watch future papers for further details about the talent show.

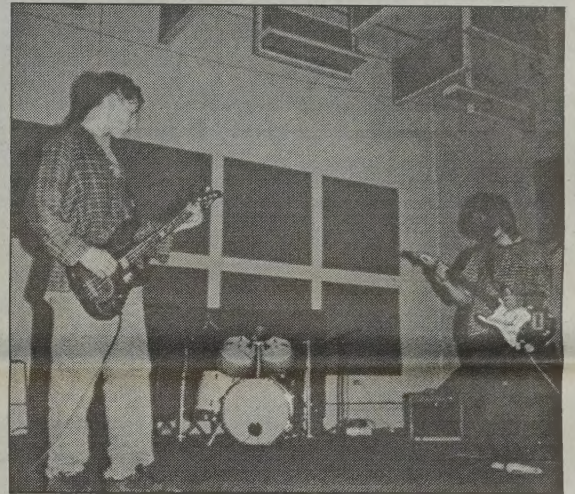

On April 20, Racette School hosted a showcase of the best of the Fine Arts and F. G. Miller's artists and musicians were there. There were interesting plays (in both French and English), beautiful artwork, and great music. F. G. Miller would like to thank Racette for hosting the event. Also a big thanks to the Servus Credit Union and all the other sponsors who helped make this showcase possible. And of course, we can't forget Mr. Kryz, Mrs. Ference and all who participated for doing a great job in seeing that F. G. Miller was well represented.

Well, that's all from the halls of F. G. Miller. Until next week...

D.O.A. is a new addition on the local teen band scene, here featuring a trench-coated Allen Paley on vocals, Aaron Young and Travis Smith on guitar, Kyle Frisby on drums and Mike Fry on bass. Chris Hancock provided the computer effects.

A great concert from some great young talent!

BLISS is another up and coming young band, featuring Billy Turner on vocals and guitar, Garrett Poulin on bass and Kyle Frisby on drums. Brian Poitras was the concert's MC and Rob Walker was the soundman.

A rural school with a lot of heart Heinsburg proves it has what it takes to stay viable

By Rhonda Noyce
Staff Writer

Heinsburg Community School showed everyone they are on top of technology during one of three attractions at their second annual open house last Thursday night.

Starting in September, students will be able to partake in the next generation of education, nicknamed the "virtual school."

As part of the new program of the St. Paul Education Division No. 1, Heinsburg will become a campus of the Alternate Education Centre in St. Paul.

Heinsburg teacher Brian Clarke introduced a classroom packed full of community members to the concept of a virtual school where a student can complete all of their schoolwork at home via a computer and an electronic link to teachers at the school.

Anyone who is at least five years six months, but less than 20 years of age on Sept. 1 of the school year in which he or she is registering can attend.

The student gets a computer, Internet access, necessary software, access to an online community, program training, 24-hour access to all subject areas offered and personal access to teachers via appointment.

"The difference between home schooling and virtual schooling is that home schooling funding does not account for teacher time," said Clarke. "In virtual schooling there is money for teaching time."

The Alternate Education Centre in St. Paul, housed at the Regional High School, began this year care of Principal Doug Yeo and Assistant Principal Denis Richer.

Clarke says the program promotes student motivation, parental involvement, increased self-esteem and responsible decision making.

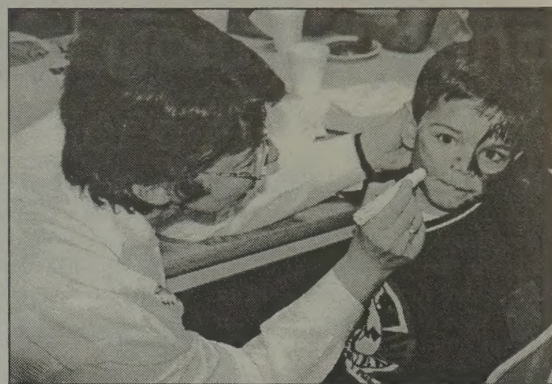

Students plan their own days under supervision of their parents and in direct contact with their teacher. On a typical day, a student will get up with the rest of the family, download her email and marked activities, plan out a schedule, work on the assignments, conduct a virtual CHAT conversation with her teacher and then work on other suggested websites or join in a cafeteria chatline with other virtual students.

"Students can also complete a blended program where they complete some work at school and some at home. They are also more than welcome to participate in school sports."

This virtual school concept is just one of the ideas keynote speaker for the open house, Julia Clarke, presented to participants.

Clarke talked about the "viability of the rural school" and suggested ways that Heinsburg and other small, rural schools could maintain themselves through these fiscally restraining times.

The Ashmont School special needs coordinator told her audience to envision a strategy to promote the school.

"You need to dare to be different and offer a unique service or program," Clarke said. "Heinsburg needs to be commended for the projects they have initiated."

"You need to dare to be different and offer a unique service or program"

- Julia Clarke

Speaking of her own school, Clarke mentioned the breakfast program and the active living strategy which were started by grant assistance.

"By offering unique programs at Ashmont Elementary, we have attracted new students to the school. People can be very fickle — it can take only one thing to attract parents to a school."

Clarke also went on to suggest ways in which small, rural schools can promoted themselves and highlight school activities in the community. And just because the school is small doesn't mean it can't provide quality education to its students.

"Don't skimp just because it's small. You should have the attitude that you can offer quality to few."

Clarke wrapped up the presentation by encouraging schools to attract volunteers within their community and make school events community events.

The third part of the evening that showed Heinsburg School's uniqueness was the success of their Early Literacy Program.

The school received a $10,000 grant last year from the local community lottery board and put the money towards a literacy program that encourages reading at an early age.

An early literacy teacher and organizer of the program, Connie Thompson, said they have proven successful results among their students.

Grade 1 and 2 classes are divided into reading groups of five or less with similar reading ability. During their 40-minute reading session each day, the students reread a familiar book, reread yesterday's book and then start reading a new book.

All of the books were on display during the open house and were organized into 24 different reading categories.

Children that are having some difficulties enter the tutoring program and read an extra 40 minutes per day outside of their regular reading group.

"I have some students that started at a zero reading level a couple months ago and are now at a level 15," said Cindy Clarke, head of the tutoring program.

Thompson said they hope to put their results and suggestions on a web page in order to help out other schools who are interested in the program.

Almost out of hockey and going around in circles

Minor Hockey windup supper goes Saturday evening

By Doug Bassett
Review Sports

I know what you're going to say, "when is this guy ever going to let it go, say goodbye hockey and go on to something else; here he goes, around in circles again this week". Well, honestly I'm trying. Every time I think we are finished with hockey, something pops up to keep it alive.

This coming weekend the Elk Point Minor Hockey will be having, for the first time in over six years, a potluck windup supper for all players, coaches and parents, to be held upstairs at the Elks Hall at 6 pm, Saturday, May 1. Some highlights of the program will be, the Minor Hockey Coach of the Year award, the Most Improved Peewee Player, and other player and team awards. This date will not work for everyone in minor hockey, but if we wait for the perfect date it will be another six years before we have this banquet.

So you see, hockey is still with us, not only in the NHL, but minor hockey as well. And I'm not surprised. Hockey is more than just a game to some Canadians. It's a religion. The arena is their church and Don Cherry is their Pope. How else can you explain why they sit in the house and watch the hockey playoffs, night after night, when it is so warm outside? But maybe not much longer for some fans. The Canadian teams are in trouble. The Oilers, thanks to the video replay, were robbed of a win Sunday night, and are down 3 to 0. First place Ottawa has trouble beating the Dominator and could be eliminated tonight also. And the Leafs, after playing poorly in the first two games, are still alive. You know I would mention them, of course, especially for my buddy, Roger, from the Hilltop, a big Montreal Canadians fan. The buds may be coming out on the trees, but the Leafs are not out yet, so there! As for Montreal, Ha, Ha, Ha. This Bud's for you, my friends.

That's the nice thing about writing this sports column, you can have your own opinion. Sometimes, like an umpire, you may blow the call, you take some flack, but you stand tall!

You can't change the call. Everyone is entitled to their own opinion, and if you can't say something nice, sometimes it's better to say nothing at all, if you know what I mean. Someday soon, hockey season will end, for some not soon enough, but for others it never ends. Do you think I'm going around in circles? I think you may be right, but that's your opinion!

Tax deadlines are approaching

By Lisa Martin
H & R Block, St. Paul

It may be hard to believe but the deadline for filing your 1998 income tax return is nearly upon us. If you have not already filed your income tax return, you should do it soon. For most people the deadline for filing your personal income tax return is April 30. If you have tax owing the penalties for not filing the return on time can add up to a substantial amount.

If you owe tax and the return is not filed by the due date Revenue Canada will charge you a late-filing penalty of 5% of your balance due plus 1% for each month that the return is late, to a maximum of 12 months. In addition to these penalties, interest on your unpaid balance will also be added to your tax liability.

There are situations whereby some or all of the penalties may be reduced or eliminated. The fairness package gives Revenue Canada the discretion to waive or cancel penalties and interest on unpaid taxes, but only if your reason for not complying with the rules involves extraordinary circumstances. For example, the changes may be waived if the lateness was due to circumstances such as flood, fire, postal strike, illness, accident or serious emotional or mental stress caused by a traumatic event (such as a death in the family). Each case will be based on its own merits so the results are not always predictable.

If you do not owe tax or are in a refund position, none of the penalties will apply. Also, if you or your spouse is anticipating income or loss from a business that was operational during the year, your filing deadline is not until June 15, 1999. The income tax due however, must still be paid prior to April 30, 1999 to avoid interest charges.

4-H Craft, Woodworking club shows year's achievements

Elk Point 4-H Multi Club's Crafts and Woodworking club members displayed a year's worth of projects at their Achievement Day on Sunday, April 25 at the Elk Point United Church Hall.

Crafts project members Michelle Leckie, Sarah Butler, Marci Bintz, Leanne Ference, Rhonda Wruth and Danielle Wruth displayed a variety of attractive projects, ranging from trios of sock snowmen to birdhouse wreaths, from "country laundry" plaques with tea-dyed mini longjohns attached to decorated clay flowerpots.

Woodworking project

members Clayton Wruth, Shawna Wruth, Taryn Shankowski, George Danyluk, Leanne Ference, Kyle Kurek, Randy Wruth, Brett Flanders, Mark Ference and Colin Ference displayed ornate corner shelves, unique miniature chests of drawers, trucks, puzzles, chests and shelf units, all crafted with patience and attention to detail.

The projects were judged by Olga Ockerman, Kim Reed and Jodi Vogel. Mrs. Ockerman said the members had "achieved very high standards" in their projects. Instructors have instilled skills in the members, and Mrs. Ockerman saw distinct improvements from last year's efforts.

Mrs. Reed added that as a former 4-Her, it is "always a pleasure to attend 4-H events. We could spend the whole afternoon" examining and judging the projects.

Another former 4-Her, Miss Vogel quoted the 4-H motto, "Learn to do by doing," and said the members "must have learned a lot. You did great projects."

Woodworking Leader David Shankowski said the members "all worked hard. I'm really proud of them, and pleasantly surprised and pleased with the finished projects." He feels that the members will concentrate on small projects next year, because "they get the most out of doing things themselves." Glenn Flanders is his assistant leader.

Claire Ference, who is assisted by Lana Wruth as Crafts Leader, said it is "always a pleasure to see the crafts. We did the crafts alongside the members and the thing I enjoyed most was seeing how the personalities came out. They are all so different."

Gifts were presented to the judges and leaders for their efforts.

4-H WOODWORKING AND CRAFT CLUB MEMBERS have completed another year of learning to do by doing, in the 4-H tradition. They held their Achievement Day last Sunday in Elk Point United Church hall.

what's NEWS at the LIBRARY?

Poster contest to celebrate Alberta Library Week

By Karina Mitchell
Librarian

I suppose you have been going around doing your business as usual without even being aware of the special week that is coming up! Yes, I am talking to you and I am talking about Alberta Library Week, May 3 - 9.

To celebrate this special week, the Elk Point Library and the Next Page Book Store are having a Colouring Contest. You can pick up the posters to be coloured at either the Library or the Book Store. There is a category for everyone from the youngest artist who prefers to chew on a crayon right up to 65 years and over. Or you can enter as a family. The deadline is May 8, though, so warm up those crayons.

Prizes are provided by the Next Page Book Store.

Remember, this isn't going to be just any old week. It is a wonderful week to enjoy all a Library has to offer.

And to prove it, here are some classic treasures that can be found in the Elk Point Library. They aren't new books, but they are wonderful books. After all, a good book never grows old! Special thanks to Vicki Brooker for her contribution this week..

Books salute Ukrainian traditions

This weekend, the Elk Point Ukrainian Dance Club is holding their annual Spring Concert. To get you in the mood for this traditional celebration of the coming of spring, the library has some fascinating books which tell of the coming of the Ukrainian settlers to northeastern Alberta.

Both The Horseman of Shandro Crossing, by Yuri Kupchenko, and The Glistening Furrow, by Sophia Slobodian, are tales of Ukrainian immigrants and the hardships and prejudices they faced in their new homeland. In the times of hardship, there was sharing, in times of sorrow, the newcomers became like family. and always, there were times of music, dancing and community celebrations. Although fiction, the settings of these books are familiar, and the people much like those who came to our own area from the Ukraine.

Harvests of Dreams is a true story by Anne and Dr. John Dubeta, written in celebration of the 100th anniversary of Ukrainians in Canada. It documents in story and pictures the early days: pioneer farming, education, religion and community life, and talks about the families who descended from those pioneers, some of whom live in our own community.

Elk Point Public Library also has a collection of books written in the Ukrainian language. You'll find them on the shelves directly under the glass-encased dolls dressed in traditional costumes of the Ukraine.

LIBRARY CALENDAR

Fridays, 10:30 a.m. — Story Time. All are invited.

Saturday, May 8 — Colouring Contest Deadline — submit to Elk Point Library or Next Page Book Store.

St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1

Cross-Area Student Transportation Requests

1999-2000 SCHOOL TERM

St. Paul Education Regional Division No. 1 recognizes its responsibility to provide transportation for students in accordance with the intent of the policies of Alberta Education and in keeping with student needs at the local level.

While the Board accepts parents' right to choose the school their children shall attend, in a rural setting this right is not automatically extended to include transportation. In order to respect Alberta Education guidelines and maintain an efficient and effective transportation system, the Division must establish transportation areas. Students living within a particular transportation area will be provided with transportation to a school within their specified area.

1. Parents who are planning to register students at a school outside their transportation area may be fully responsible for transportation to that school, but may apply for school bus transportation to their residence where reasonable, or drive their children to an existing pickup / drop-off point on a route to that school providing room is available on the bus and in the school.

2. Parents and individuals purchasing new property are responsible for contacting the St. Paul Education Regional Division Office to confirm their transportation area.

3. Requests for transportation outside of an individual's transportation area must be received in writing as per the specified form by the Director of Facilities and Transportation no later than June 15 to be considered for the following school year.

Roadside Spraying Program

The County of St. Paul No. 19 Agricultural Service Board will be starting their 1999 Roadside Spraying Program in the month of June. This program is in place to control the spread of Noxious Weeds along the Municipal road allowances.

If for any reason you do not want the road allowance along your property sprayed, you must contact the County Office at 645-3301 and also post the areas that you do not want sprayed far enough in advance, so that the operators have enough time to shut down their equipment. "Do Not Spray" signs are available at the County Office.

Ratepayers that do not want their road allowance sprayed, will be held responsible for the control of all Noxious Weeds within that area.

Road allowances along sensitive crops will not be sprayed until a later date.

For more information, contact Larry at 645-3006
